General Local News.

LYCURGUS BARRETT, Local Editor.
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1876.

First White Shirts for $1.00, at
L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

The merchants of our town are receiving unusually large stocks of goods this fall.

The weather of the past month has produced a great deal of sickness in the county.

It is now evident that there will be a larger mast this season than has grown for several years.

Miss Nora Johnson, of Daviess county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. P.
Sanderfer, of this place.

Blankets, Shawls &c., at

This portion of the county was visited by several showers of refreshing rain last week.

The merry peal of the school bell rang out Monday morning. No more haze ball for the small boy.

Our friend J. E. Fogle, one of the rising young lawyers here, leaves today for the Sebree City Convention.

Read the beautiful poem on our first page by "Rosine" to Mrs. Peyton, on the death of her daughter Maggie.

There are several cases of sickness in town at present, but we hope none of them will prove to be of a serious nature.

Call at L. Rosenberg & Bro., and look at their Mammoth Stock.

Mr. Joseph Moore and wife of Henderson, Ky., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. F. Yager, of our town.

Our young friend, Wm. Armendt, of this place, left Monday morning for Owensboro, where he expects to study the profession of dentistry.

Mr. W. H. Newcomb, of this county, has a Berkshire pig twenty weeks old which weighs seventy-eight pounds.
This pig gained fifteen pounds in our week.

John S. Newcomb reports another leaf of tobacco this week, which he says measures 31 by 41 inches. "Uncle" Billy Wade will have to come again.

Go and buy your Custom made Clothing for Men, Boys and Youths, at

The young ladies and gentlemen of town, that wish to take part in the plays, are requested to meet at the Good Templars Hall, next Friday night.

Misses LYDIA GRIFFIN and Sallie Taylor left our town last week, the former to visit friends in Haawesville, and the latter to visit relatives in Owensboro.

Miss MAGGIE MOSELEY will please accept our thanks for the waiter of luscious grapes sent us last week for our illness. We can assure the fair donor that they were highly appreciated.

Now is your time to buy bargains in Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Notions and Trimmings,
L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

Don't fail to read the advertisement of E. Small's, and when you have read it be sure and go to the Trade Palace and examine the largest, nicest and the cheapest stock of goods ever brought to Ohio county.

The St. Cloud Hotel, Louisville, Ky., is one of the best Hotels in the State. It has been rebuilt and remodeled within the last year, and has been thoroughly renovated. The proprietor and clerks are polite and obliging to their guests. Give them a call. See advertisement in this issue.

Largest Apple of the Season.

We were presented with an apple, which was grown on the farm of Mr.
B. C. Warden, living in this county, 2 1/2 miles from Rockport, which measures 1 1/2 inches in diameter, equaling 4 1/2 inches in diameter. He says it is called the "twenty ounce apple." Who can beat it?

Mr. WICKLIFFE CHAPMAN, formerly editor and proprietor of the Elizabethtown News, was in town this week visiting his brother, Mr. W. C. Chapman. Mr. C. informs us that he has sold his office to Mr. H. M. McCarty, of Louisville Ky.

The piece on our first page by Mrs.
Jones, was written last fall just after a trip to the Louisville Exposition, and published in our Hartford club paper, and we now publish it by request of several of those who heard it read at the club meeting.

Our old typographical friend, Alex.
Cummins, who is now pushing his fortune among the tobacco plants, informs us that he has a setter dog that regularly takes his row every day, pulling out and killing the larger worms. The small ones he has an utter contempt for, leaving them for his human co-laborers.

Mr. A. H. ROUSE, living near Elm Lick Station, brought to our office, on Monday morning, an insect termed the "mammoth worm." It is of a greenish color, and about six inches long; has fourteen legs and eight horns.
It is pronounced by Dr. J. T. Miller to be very poisonous. The worm is on exhibition at this office.

Republican Meetings.

There will be a Republican meeting and the raising of a Cornwell, on Saturday next. Speeches will be made by J. Z. Moore and E. C. Hubbard, clerks for the district.

There will also be a meeting at Bishop's school house near Cervino, on Friday evening next at 7 o'clock, at which place Mr. J. Z. Moore will address the people.

Mr. J. R. EDWARDS, living above town, presented us with two dwarf pears which are the largest we have seen this year, measuring eleven inches around.
Mr. Edwards took a premium three or four years ago on pears from this same tree at our county fair.

Dr. EDWARDS, Dentist, Louisville, Ky., has an advertisement in this week's paper. The Dr. has the reputation of being one of the best dentists in Ky. All work receives prompt attention. Charges reasonable, and he guarantees satisfaction.
Louisville is very easily reached, and our people could not do better than call on Dr. Edwards for any dental work they may need.

Read Mr. Charles Hixley's card in this issue. Our Republican friends are in a quandary. If they fail longer to recognize the colored voter as a man and brother, they will lose him as a voter. If they do so recognize him and give him important positions in the party, they will lose some of their best and most faithful members.

The Convention here last Saturday was largely attended, and instructed for Hon. Jas. A. McKenzie, unanimously. His nomination is secured beyond question, and he will get a rousing majority in November.

The proceedings were not handed into us in time to publish this week, which we very much regret.

The Hon. I. A. Spalding carried Union county by a vote of 633, to 6 for Mr. McKenzie. This shows that Mr. McKenzie had a competitor worthy of his steel, and his nomination over Mr. Spalding is as high a compliment as could have been paid him.

Do not forget the public speaking at the Barbecue next Saturday, at No Creek bridge, 3 miles North of Hartford. Hons. J. Z. Moore and E. C.
Hubbard will not be there; but the Republicans will be represented by Hon.
O. P. Johnson; and the Democrats, by Prof. W. B. Hayward, Hon. W. R.
Haynes and others. Turn out everybody, and let's have a gay old time.

MARRIED.—In Evansville, Ind., in King's M. E. Church, Aug. 23, 1876, at 8 o'clock, p. m., Mr. J. W.
Poyner, of Beaver Dam, Ky., to Miss Alice McGraw. They arrived at Beaver Dam, on 25. We wish them a happy and joyous life.

Really Round The Flag.

John A. Dickinson, Sixth Street, between Main and Market, Louisville, Ky., keeps a large assortment of all kinds of Flags. We have the pleasure of an acquaintance with Mr. D., and can cheerfully recommend him to the public as a worthy gentleman in every particular. He can furnish any kind of a flag desired, at a fair price. See advertisement in this issue.

Express Rubber Caught.

Esau Shelton, one of the three brothers who robbed the Express office at Riley's Station, last April, has been arrested, and was carried to Calhoun last Monday. He was arrested by Detective P. W. Connel, of Memphis, the same man who arrested the other two, near Sneedville, Tenn. Connel says the other one had as well come in and give himself up, as the Southern Express Company will catch him if it takes ten years, and costs ten thousand dollars to do it.

The Grand Republican Rally here last Monday, was a success so far as numbers were concerned, there being an immense turn out. The flag was hoisted and Hon. E. C. Hubbard delivered the oration, after which Hon.
J. Z. Moore and Hon. John Poland, addressed a large audience at the courthouse. We were so busily engaged that we did not get to hear the speeches, but understand that Mr. Moore fought all the battles of the late war over again. The short speech of Mr. Pol-land, is spoken of as a very mild, fair and liberal one with no bloody shirt or sectional bitterness in it.

A Little Girl Drowned.

A little daughter of Mr. Ed James, living in the Point Pleasant neighborhood, was playing in a boat on Rough creek last Friday, when she fell from the boat into the water and there being no one present but her little sister, was instantly drowned. Parents should be careful how they allow their children to go about creeks.

Good Templars Convention.

The convention of I. O. G. T. will meet with Newton Lodge, No. 410, on 27 and 28 of October, 1876. All Good Templars are invited to attend.

County Grange Meeting.

The Ohio County Grange, No. 65, will meet on the first Monday in November, 1876, at Beaver Dam, 10 o'clock a. m. The Masters of subordinate granges are hereby notified to meet at the same time and place, to elect representatives to the State Grange.

BURFORD, OHIO COUNTY, KY., Sept. 2nd, 1876.

Editor Herald:

I see in your paper that I am appointed Chairman of the committee in Bell's district, by the Republican Convention. I want it well understood that I will not serve as chairman of that committee, or any other where a negro is appointed to serve on the same committee. CHARLES HIXLEY.

The Sultry Days of Summer.

Hot weather is very exhausting upon the energies, and its influence renders the system peculiarly liable to disease.
During the close and sultry days of July and August, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Colic, and pains in the stomach are common and fatal diseases. It is not enough to trust to a cathartic when attacked, for it is essential to take proper measures for their prevention. An unfailing prevention of all summer complaints exists in Dr. RADCLIFF'S SEVEN SEALS on GOLDEN WOODEN; and this standard and vegetable preparation is no less efficacious as a cure. Thousands have used it for all diseases incident to the summer solstice, and always with the happiest results. Complete cures are effected in the worst cases.

In Memoriam.

There are times in the history of our lives when all are made to feel sad.
Such an occasion occurred in our little town the evening of August 26, 1876. News reached us that Miss Florence Stevens was dead; her soul had winged its flight to the God who gave it. A death-like calmness pervaded the entire community; all who knew Florence loved her, not an enemy had she in the world, and no one had thought of such an angelic spirit being called away.

The ways of Providence are mysterious, and we must believe that all He does is done in wisdom, but why the ones who are capacitated to wield so great an influence in this life, should be called away, is beyond conception.
It had been our privilege to enjoy the society of our friend Florence for a few years—she was ever the same, kind, considerate, young lady.
To meet her alone or around the family circle, she was ever courteous and polite.

She loved her parents and brothers, with a true daughter's and sister's affection. I was with her during her last illness—through the lonely vigils of the many nights, watched her feverish brow, there was ever upon her countenance a smile of contentment:
"We watched her breathing through the night, Her breathing soft and low,
As in her breast the wave of life Kept heaving to and fro." While in her delicious state she often called the names of her mother, our friends, and at intervals seemed to recognize them.

Just before she died she called the family around her and kissed them Good-Bye.

Florence is no more, she is done with the trying realities of this life, over us we know her guardian angelic spirit hovers, it bids us look upward, and we feel a consciousness within, that on another shore bright, tropical shores by as will be gathered, and fore-ever around the throne of God will we live together, though for a wise purpose He hath separated us here.

Beaver Dam, Sep-3rd, 1876.

An Impromptu to that Flag Rais- ed by the Republicans last Monday.

All hail! all hail! to that banner that floats in the breeze.
It's for Hayes and for Wheeler, and whatever else you please.
For Babcock and Bellnap, the black negro brigade,
And the worst rogues and rascals that ever made.

As the last hope it flouts the red bloody shirt,
But true honest men it can never desert.
For Reform and Tilden are coming with a flood,
That will sweep off the hay-fakes, and wipe out the blood.
And then Mother Hubbard, who has forgot him some bread, Will wake in the morning and find his dog dead.

MESSRS. THOMAS LERK and Jesse Shacklet, living in this county, have brought samples of large tobacco.
The samples of the former measured 34 by 29, and the latter, 24 by 34 inches.

Give Your Name.

We must again request persons who send us communications to give us their true names. Every week we receive communications without any name. We will publish any fictitious name you may send us, but we want your real name, as an evidence of good faith. All communications received not signed by some responsible party, will go to the waste basket certainly. We never will publish any communications without knowing the real name of the writer.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from active practice, having placed in his hands by an East India Missionary the formula of a simple Vegetable Remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a Positive and Radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motivation, and a conscientious desire to relieve human suffering, he will send (free of charge) to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and successfully using. Sent by return mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper.
